TRADEMARK | drink local & eat local

We are passionate about the treats and treasures that can be found in our local area. Whether it's the incredible craft brews from our friends at local breweries, locally distilled whiskies or the local produce and proteins used in our eats. We seek and use the freshest local produce, finding many delights from the fields of Tuscarora's Organic Co-operative in Pennsylvania. And it's not just booze and veg -- We are proud to use local Bell & Evans chicken. The Bell & Evans Humane Animal Welfare Standard™ assures all of their chickens are humanely raised and compassionately handled, in a minimal-stress environment, throughout their lives.
